

Video Editing Internship

Coral Head Productions (CHP) is an international film production company seeking interns to help with editing/film/photos, shorts, social media clips and promoting our grassroots television series called "Trading Dishes".

Job Description:

- Video file management and cataloging files.
- Working with the director and lead editor to cut short online videos that will be used as viral outreach content.
- Be able to meet deadlines and possess a strong sense of responsibility.
- Contribute to mixing and editing to create polished and engaging videos.
- Publish videos on YouTube, Vimeo and other online platforms and edit still photography.
- Deliver videos with original and stock footage, graphics, and sound with high production value.

Qualifications:

- Candidates who are passionate about the environment, travel, film, food systems, and/or agricultural sustainability.
- Experience with creating, editing and producing video/film clips for YouTube, Instagram, and other social media platforms.
- Experience editing with Adobe Premiere Pro, After Effects, Light Room, and Photoshop
- Past editing work samples where you were the primary editor.
- Great organizational and communication skills.
- Willingness to learn and increase editing skills during the duration of the internship.
- Be willing to sign a non disclosure agreement.

Work Schedule/Time Commitment:

- Approximately 10-15+ hours/week (depending on work flow/ school requirements.)
- Minimum 3 days per week required, however 5 days preferred, we are flexible according to your school/work schedule.
- Many job duties may be done from home, but weekly meetings with Coral Head Productions staff may be required either in person or via Skype.

To Apply:

Please submit cover letter and resume to info@coralheadproductions.com along with examples of a press release and marketing campaign you organized or helped complete, in order to be considered. We will notify you of our decision.

This in an unpaid internship with possibility of a full time - paid position.

